TWENTY-TWENTY GRATITUDE GUIDE

"The more absorbed I am in the Gospel, the more grateful I become in the midst of my circumstances, whatever they may be." - Milton Vincent

This year has been a memorable one in so many ways. Both Scripture and this season beckon us to be thankful to God. On top of all that God's done for us through His Son, we can also be grateful to Him for many blessings. We're going to rehearse some of these each day leading up to Thanksgiving. Join us.

Let's thank God for...

nov 16

— answered prayer.

This year, there are moments where you've cried out to God in desperation and He's heard you. Thank Him for hearing and answering your prayers.

17

— the election.

Let's thank God for this season in our country and how it drew many of us to put our confidence and focus on Jesus, our King.

nov 18

— suffering.

We can rejoice in sufferings because they can't compare to the eternal weight of glory that is ours in Christ. Let's thank God for sustaining us through suffering this year.

19

— 2020 itself.

Yes, it's been a difficult year on many levels. But, God has shown us incredible kindness through this. Thank Him for something He's done in 2020.

20

— families & church family.

This year has provided opportunities, at times, to deepen our connections to our families (both earthly and heavenly). Let's thank God for these blessings.

nov 21

— the schools in our community.

Let's thank God for the schools that serve so many of us. Many of them have had to adapt in unique ways. Let's thank God for giving them the skill to make such adjustments.

22

— spiritual growth.

I wonder what lessons God taught you this year that helped you grow spiritually. Thank Him for teaching, reading, and development you were able to step into for growing in holiness.

23

— conversions.

This year was the year that many came to faith. Let's thank God for saving people in 2020 and ask Him to continue to do this work among us.

nov 24

— that God is our rock & refuge.

Some of us have held onto God in deeper ways than in years past. Let's thank Him for being our refuge and strength and our very present help in trouble.

nov 25

— the Spirit's empowerment.

We've been seeing in Acts how God is on the move, Jesus is building His church, and the Spirit is empowering us. Let's thank God for sending this Helper to us, that we may know His comfort and glorify Christ.

nov 26

— the Gospel.

Thank God today for sending His Son, Jesus, to live a perfect life for you, die in the place of sinners, and rise again, so that He can rule and reign today. Thank God for the good news that He has come to rescue us.
